WOMAN'S TRIUMPH. A Severe Surgical Operation. It is Endured Without taking Ether. Subject, Mrs. Edward Myers, of Rondout. N. Y. (From the Correspondence of the Kingston, N. Y. Freeman.) The case of Mrs. Edward Myers, of Rondout, New York, furnishes an apt illustration of woman's power of endurance. This lady had been treated for months in the usual way for Erysipelas of the hand, without benefit. Not until her hand had become a mass of putrified flesh did she turn to Dr. Kennedy, proprietor of the "Favorite Remedy," for help. He at once informed her that it was impossible to save the hand—it must be amputated. She received this terrible intelligence quietly, declined to take ether, stipulating merely to hold her husband's hand during the operation, and underwent the painful process without moving a muscle or uttering a groan. Dr. Kennedy then gave "Favorite Remedy" freely to cleanse the blood and prevent the return of the disease, and Mrs. Myers now lives and rejoices in her great deliverance. "Favorite Remedy" is fast becoming a trusted household friend in all cases of Female Weakness and diseases of the blood. One dollar a bottle. Your druggist has it, jun26MW&w1y

The Maine Universalist Convention at Augusta.

AUGUSTA, June 27.—The Maine Universalist Convention convened in this city this forenoon at 10 o'clock. The attendance is large, between five and six hundred visitors being present, including prominent divines from out of the State. The forenoon was largely occupied by a business session. The report of the Executive Committee shows that the cause of Universalism in the State is going forward. There is a demand for at least eight more ministers in Maine than can be supplied. The outlook for the denomination is very encouraging. At 11 o'clock Rev. G. G. Hamilton of Waterville preached an excellent sermon on "Unseen Companionships."

The annual meeting of the Women's Centenary Association was called for 2 o'clock, at which hour the church was crowded, a large proportion of those present being ladies. Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. C. E. Angell of Pittsfield. Mrs. C. A. Quinby submitted her report as Vice President of the Association, explaining the history and object of its organization twelve years ago at the centennial jubilee of the Universalist church at Gloucester, Mass., when ladies of the denomination formed a chartered organization called "The Women's Centenary Association." This society has for its object the maintenance of a Scottish mission, erection of a Washington church and of a Potter memorial church and support of home missions. Rev. Miss L. Haynes of Fairfield spoke of the importance of cultivating the missionary spirit. Mrs. Loretta Foster of Ware, N. H., followed in an interesting address. Remarks were also made by other ladies who are friendly to the work which the association is doing, urging increased efforts and greater devotion to the cause.

So successful were the pleas that a contribution of $114 was taken among the audience.

At 4 o'clock the business session was resumed. The treasurer of the convention, Hon. Richard Dresser of Auburn, submitted his annual report for the year ending June, 1882, as follows:

Total receipts from all sources, $3,926.25; total expenditures for all purposes, $1,622.20; balance in the treasury including the permanent fund, $1,304.06. The permanent funds of the convention were stated as follows: Missionary fund, $1,112.60; educational fund, $493.16; indigent minister fund $363.22; total, $1,968.98.

The committee on nominations reported in part as follows:

President—Hon. Asa Cushman of Auburn.
Vice President—Hon. L. H. Hutchinson, Lewiston.
Secretary—Rev. I. J. Mead, Hiram.
Treasurer—Hon. Richard Dresser, Auburn.
Sunday School Secretary—Rev. H. C. Munson, Canton.
Preacher of Occasonal Sermon for 1883—Rev. H. S. Whitman, Mechanic Falls. Substitute—Rev. W. S. Ralph, Halifax, N. S.

These officers were duly elected by ballot.

In the evening Rev. J. M. Pullman, D. D., spoke to an immense congregation in Granite Church.

Tornado in Lincoln County.

A heavy thunder shower, accompanied by a powerful wind and rain, struck this section at 6 o'clock last evening and prevailed nearly half an hour. In Edgecomb James Richards's house and barn were struck by lightning and damaged badly but not burned. In New Castle A. J. Curtis's large barn was blown down and the roof of Mr. Woodbridge's barn taken off. A carpenter's shop here was demolished, and many small buildings, trees and fences throughout the county levelled.

Pastoral Relations Dissolved.

MECHANIC FALLS, June 27.—A Congregational council convened here to-day, composed of eighteen pastors and delegates, decided to advise Rev. F. E. Emerich to accept a call to a Chicago pastorate, in view of a greater field of usefulness, thus dissolving his relations with the society here, to take effect in September.

Wrecked in the Gale.

GARDINER, June 27.—During a heavy gale last night the houses of the Independent Ice Company of Washington, D. C., four miles below this city, were blown to the ground, exposing a large quantity of ice. The "round top" houses were slightly damaged. An unfinished house at South Gardiner was demolished, the inmates having a narrow escape. In the city and vicinity barns, trees, fences, etc., were blown down. It was the severest wind ever known in this vicinity.

The Railroad Consolidation.

BOSTON, June 27. It is reported that at a meeting of the Eastern Railroad directors this forenoon the proposition of the Boston and Maine Company was rejected and that the only terms the Eastern would agree was a proposition of the latter road of payment of interest of the bonds of both roads then 8 per cent. of stocks of B. & M., six per cent. on stock of Eastern and then divide the surplus.

Mr. Morrill from the finance committee reported favorably and asked immediate consideration of the senate bill to amend the act donating public land to the several states and territories which may provide colleges for the benefit of agricultural and mechanical arts. The bill was passed as pefected upon a sugestion by Mr. Hoar.

On motion of Mr. Allison the senate in the morning hour took up the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill.

HOUSE.

In the House Messrs. Morse and Ranney of Massachusetts proceeded on behalf of the donors to present with speeches to the House a handsome portrait of Hon. Robert C. Winthrop.

Mr. Tucker of Virginia, after a few eloquent remarks, offered the following:

Resolved, That the Speaker be requested to inform Hon. John D. Long, E. R. Hoar and Samuel Cobb of Massachusetts, of the satisfaction with which this House has received their present of a portrait of Hon. Robert C. Winthrop, Speaker of the Thirtieth Congress, and to assure them that it shall be placed and preserved among those of other distinguished members who in times past have presided over the House of Representatives.

After a brief speech by Mr. Stephens of Georgia, who seconded the resolution it was adopted unanimously.

The committee on elections reported resolutions in the contested election case of Strobach vs. Herbert in the second district of Alabama granting leave to the contestant to withdraw his contest without prejudice. Adopted.

The same committee submitted a report in the contested election case of Smith vs. Shelley from the fourth district of Alabama, accompanied by a resolution declaring the seat vacant. Laid over for further action.

Endorse the Crooked Greenback Ticket.

A SMALL AND SPIRITLESS CONVENTION AND VERBOSE PLATFORM.

(Special Dispatch to the Press.)

LEWISTON, June 27.—The convention today was not a convention of the unterrified, but of the badly frightened. Up to a very late hour last night the DeWitt House was filled with the leaders of the most demoralized crowd on record. The Hon. Bion Bradbury was mostly occupied with refusing positions tendered him. In the first place he was requested to preside and refused, giving as a reason that he wanted a chance to talk from the floor, and Emery was selected at his suggestion. Later on he refused to be even considered in connection with the Congressional nomination. Mr. W. A. Cromwell wasn't happy at all, and declined even to consider the proposition to become so, and at about 2 o'clock in the morning, in a brief, but vigorous speech, expressed his conviction that the Democratic diet of apples and wind had become monotonous, and that some substantial viands would be more "filling." Mr. Cromwell is in dead earnest, and take him all in all is a good sort of man enough but he is too particular about what he is filled with to even make a representative Maine Democrat. Most of the other delegates were unhappy.

The seats filled up slowly and the prospect for early adjournment grew less every moment.

The convention was called to order by Edwin Stone, Esq., of Biddeford, the chairman of the Democratic State Committee, who read the call and announced the list of officers selected last evening.

Chairman—Hon. George F. Emery, Portland.

Secretaries—Willis G. Bickford, Bangor; James U. Childs, Farmington; A. L. Farnsworth, Portland; Joseph Carleton, Camden; E. E. Hastings, Fryeburg; Levi D. Wyman, Ellsworth.

In the Penobscot delegation were five men who had previously taken part in the Greenback State and District conventions, and perhaps the same percentage held good throughout the State.

The Hon. George F. Emery came forward, and no member moving that he be granted permission to print his remarks in the Argus he proceeded to address the convention, reading his extemporaneous remarks. He made much of the quarrel between the Governor and Council, and denounced the "audacity" of the Republicans in nominating Robie.

On motion of Mr. Moulton of Scarboro, the State Committee was made a committee on credentials. The committee reported 824 delegates present.

On motion of Rawson of Penobscot, the temporary organization was made permanent.

Lewis Pierce of Portland moved that all resolutions be referred without debate to the committee on resolutions. Adopted, after Mr. Rawson had been assured that amendments would not be out of order.

Mr. Knox moved a recess of ten minutes in order that the several counties might select one vice president, one member of the State Committee, and one member of the committee on resolutions. Carried.

The delegations from the several counties reported as follows:

STATE COMMITTEE:

W. W. Sanborn,	J. S. Bridgham,
R. L. Baker,	F. A. Owen,
C. H. Chase,	D. R. Straw,
J. S. Holman,	J. B. Torrey,
J. B. Redman,	S. W. Gould,
S. S. Brown,	L. H. Munch,
J. H. Martin,	F. F. Lynch,
B. B. Haskell,	W. A. Cromwell.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

D. J. Callahan,	Asa O. Pike,
V. B. Wilson,	F. H. Getchell.
Mon Bradbury,	A. S. Wade,
E. G. Greenlief,	A. Libby,
H. Jay,	Albert Moore,
J. H. Potter,	Joseph Williamson,
J. E. Moore,	John C. Talbot,
Benj. F. Smith,	L. S. Moore.

Mr. Bradbury took the floor and nominated Gov. Plaisted because of "the faith he had in him as a true Democrat," who "represents the real Democracy of the State." The nomination was seconded by Mr. Talbot of Washington and carried by acclamation.

A delegate moved to adjourn for dinner. Hon. J. P. Bass of Bangor in a vigorous speech opposed the motion. He wanted the question of Congressional candidates settled. He endorsed Dr. Ladd. The motion was lost.

Mr. Bradbury asked that the committee on resolutions be requested to retire. "It is always safe," added the President, "to follow Mr. Bradbury."

The chair read the letter of Gen. Anderson declining to have his name used. He said he believed the letter to be written in good faith because "we all knew that Gen. Sam Anderson never says one thing and means another."

Mr. Martin of Knox county moved the convention adopt the apportionment made at Bangor, remarking very properly that as the convention had already adopted the candidate of one party, it might adopt the apportionment of the same party.

Mr. Bradbury said the county of Cumberland would not accept an apportionment that would let Sagadahoc Democrats few in number but splendid in character, be added to the old first district.

On motion of Mr. Webster of Somerset the convention adopted the Bangor apportionment

Mr. Bass of Bangor moved that the several district conventions be held and the result be reported at the meeting of the convention after adjournment. Carried.

Convention adjourned to 2.30 o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The convention was called to order at 2.30.

Mr. Drew of York presented the name of Gen. Samuel J. Anderson, and said the "District" convention had directed the State committee from the three counties comprising the "district" to call a district convention if Gen. Anderson should decline, said convention to be called before the sixth of July next. A delegate moved that the convention be called to meet in Portland.

Mr. Moulton of Scarboro offered a resolution to the effect that if any candidate decline the State committee of the district be a committee to call a convention either of the delegates to the State convention, or to call a new convention.

Gen. Anderson was then declared nominated.

A committee comprising Spinney of York, Adams of Cumberland and Tarrey of Sagadahoc was appointed to inform Gen. Anderson of his nomination.

Daniel H. Thing was then presented as the candidate from his district for congress, and he was nominated.

The third district reported the name of Geo. W. Ladd, and he was nominated.

A committee composed of Wilson of Kennebec, Osgood of Androscoggin, Bridghan of Oxford and Belcher of Franklin was appointed to inform Mr. Thing of his nominati on.

A committee of three was on motion of Mr. Drew of York appointed to inform Gov. Plaisted of his nomination, the committee being Bradbury of Cumberland, Stone of York, and Talbot of Washington.

Mr. Murch was then nominated for Congress.

A committee composed of Getchell of Penobscot, Robinson of Piscataquis, Keegan of Aroostook and Webster of Somerset was appointed to notify Mr. Ladd of his nomination.

The Hon. Bion Bradbury of Portland, as the chairman of the committee on resolutions, read the following

PLATFORM:

Resolved, That this convention, representative of the Democratic citizens of Maine, declares the following to be the principles of their political creed and the grounds upon which they ask the support of their fellow citizens:

1—Under a Republican form of government the method by which the sovereign people exercise their rights of self-government is by the election of such men to offices of legislation and administration as will represent and carry out their opinions and principles, and when elections are carried by purchasing votes with contributions from corporations and capitalists who expect to be specially favored in legislation, and from assessments upon salaries of government officers who expect to prolong their terms of office, the very sources of political power are corrupted and the right of the people to self-government is practically denied.

2—Such reform of the civil service of the government national, state and municipal, is emphatically demanded as shall make the public employment open to all citizens competent to discharge their duties, instead of being spoils of partisan victories to be distributed as they now are among the workers and managers of self-constituted political leaders and bosses. The government of the United States at present administered by the rings and bosses of the Republican party has become an oligarchy of office-holders perpetuating itself by the corrupt use of money acquired by assessments levied upon subordinate government employes, Star Route contractors, protected monopolies, and by the plunder of the treasury by Congressional jobbing and wasteful extravagance, thus undermining the foundations of all political morality, destroying the sanctity of the ballot, debauching the people and paving the way to centralization and empire.

3—The right of the producer and manufacturer to sell the products of their industries in the dearest and buy what they cannot profitably produce in the cheapest market is a right which the government ought not to interfere with or restrict, except so far as may be necessary to raise revenue for its own support, and all such interference which taxes industry to foster certain lines of manufactures, in the end and for the whole people tends to lessen the profits of trade and the wages of labor. The present tariff whereby $150,000,000 of surplus revenue is annually exacted from the laboring and producing classes should be reduced so as to leave this money in the pockets of the people, where it belongs and is most safe, and thus curtail the reckless expenditures of a corrupt and spendthrift congress and remove the oppressive load of unnecessary and excessive taxation which is crushing out the life and substance of the people.

4—The perpetuation beyond twenty years and beyond any public necessity of the onerous taxation imposed on American industry by the so called protective tariff to which the burdens imposed by the civil war made it at the first a patriotic sacrifice of the people to submit, a taxation whereof the large excess above what accrues as revenue to the government goes to enlarge the profits of favored manufacturers, imposes burdens upon labor and particularly agricultural labor in the enhanced cost of living which is not offset by a corresponding increase in wages or in the prices of agricultural products and that it was a heartless mockery to pretend to redress grievances that have become intolerable by referring the revision of the tariff to a commission purposely packed to continue it.

5—Commerce is only possible between enlightened nations on the basis of mutual advantages and just equivalent, and a flourishing foreign commerce is the only permanent stimulus and support of shipping and shipbuilding. Maine by its frontier position and its extended and well harbored seaboard admirably fitted to embark profitably in navigation and foreign commerce, and by its forests and the skill and enterprise of its people to build as it ever built the ships for carrying it on has been sacrificed to a policy that has destroyed commerce by shutting our markets against return freights and made international carrying trade impossible in competition with the ships and products of lower taxed countries the complete ascendancy of our commercial competition in the free markets of the world indicating how our heavy taxation more than neutralizes the advantages which cheap land and the intelligence of our artisans ought to have given us.

6. Gold and silver coin is the medium in which the notes, bonds and other obligations of the United States are in good faith payable unless another mode of payment is stipulated for in the contract; but inasmuch as commercial usage among all civilized people has sanctioned the employment of non-interest bearing demand notes as the most convenient substitute for coin in domestic exchanges, Congress has the power and is bound to perform the duty of seeing that there is established and maintained at all times a currency of general credit, always convertible into and in value equal to specie, adapted to the wants of commerce and the business of the people and suited to the existing circumstances of the country.

7. Congress, exercising an undeniable constitutional power necessary and statutory over that which constitutes the actual money of the country, whether coin or the representative of coin, and bound to protect the community against the evils of a debased coin against the greater evils of an excessive issue of paper, more than twenty years ago did establish and have since maintained the issue of United States demand notes such a currency, its credit of the Government measured by the premiums upon the bonds is superior to the credit of any corporation, commercial or political, equivalent in value to specie and practically convertible into it, and admirably adapted to the wants of commerce, the business of the people and the circumstances of the country. To withdraw this currency for the sake of substituting the bills of banking corporations, none of them liable for the obligations of others, in the obvious presence of the fact that all of the national debt the people voluntarily circulate in the form of demand notes draws no interest and is virtually extinguished, is to change a superior for an inferior currency, to surrender a power conceded by our greatest statesmen to have been conferred on Congress by the Constitution, and to hesitate and to recede at the dictation of interested capitalists in consummating the sovereignty of the legislature over all that constituted the actual money of the country—a consummation made possible and easy by our national debt and by the successful circulation for twenty years, with constantly increasing public favor, of a circulating medium in form and convenience the best known.

8.—The Democratic party declares itself in favor of the abolition of imprisonment for debt, of exempting wages for personal labor from attachment by trustee process and of amending the statutes which declare "ten hours of actual labor to be a day's work" so that it shall apply to all classes of labor.

9.—That the action of the executive council in rejecting nominations made by the governor for numerous county offices and for other important places of public trust, to supply existing vacancies in the persons of men confessedly qualified therefor was in degrogation of the constitution, in conflict with the declared opinion of the supreme court and subversive of the popular will. Furthermore the odiousness of such usurpation has been made offensively conspicuous by the nomination by the Republican party of a prominent actor therein and thus practically declaring the doctrine that democrats have no rights to public office to which their political opponents are bound to respect.

10.—That Harris M. Plaisted who as governor of Maine has deported himself in the circumstances surrounding him, with a dignity becoming his high office and has signalized his devotion to the constitution of the State with the same great zeal and gallantry that characterized him when fighting to rescue that of the country in its direst extremity deserves the thanks of all friends of law, order and constitutional government, and we take pride and pleasure in commending him for re-election in just recognition of his able and patriotic services, and at today more than ever an able representative of popular sovereignty in contradistinction from a subservient embodiment of autocracy and ring rule.

The resolutions were adopted.

Messrs. Martin of Knox, Smith of Lincoln, Redman of Hancock, Williamson of Waldo, and Talbot of Washington were appointed a committee to notify Mr. Murch of his nomination.

It was voted that when there is a legal apportionment made the State Committee shall appoint a district committee to call a district convention.

The Hon. E. F. Pillsbury of Boston, was introduced, and was greeted with a perfect ovation. Mr. Pillsbury made a speech professedly in favor of revenue reform. Other gentlemen were called on, but did not respond, so the convention adjourned.

DE LONG'S LOG.

A Trilling Story of Suffering, Starvation and Death—Struggles of the Little Band for Life.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—The Navy department is in receipt of advices from Engineer George W. Melville, dated Lena delta, March 25, 1882, in which he gives a detailed account of his operations up to that time and full particulars of the finding of the remains of De Long and his comrades. He also forwards a copy of the log book of Lieutenant De Long, which shows that the party suffered terribly from the cold and that their food was dog's meat. De Long's log book reads as follows:

Saturday, October 15—Breakfast, willow tea and two old boots; conclude to move at sunrise; Alexy breaks down, also Lee: come to empty grain raft, halt and camp, signs of smoke at twilight to S'd.

Sunday, October 16—Alexy broke down, divine service.

Monday—Alexy dying, doctor baptized him, read prayers for sick, Mr. Collin's birthday, forty years old; about sunset Alexy died; exhaustion from starvation; covered with ensign and laid him in crib.

Tuesday—Calm and mild, snow falling; buried Alexy in the afternoon; laid him on the ice and covered him with slabs of ice.

Wednesday—Cutting up tent to make foot gear; doctor went ahead to find new camp; shifted by dark.

Thursday—Bright and sunny, but very cold; Lee and Kaack done up.

Friday—Kaack was found dead about midnight between the doctor and myself. Lee died about noon. Read prayers for the sick when we found he was going.

Saturday—Too weak to carry the bodies of Lee and Kaack out on the ice. The doctor, Collins and myself carried them around the corner out of sight, then my eyes closed up.

Sunday—Everybody pretty weak. Slept or rested to-day, and then managed to get enough wood in before dark. Read part of divine service. Suffering in our feet; no foot gear.

Monday—A hard night. Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, 27th, 13th day, Iverson broken down.

Friday—Iverson died during early morning.

Saturday, 29th—Dressler died during the night.

Sunday, October 30—140th day, Boyd and Gartz died during the night; Mr. Collins dying. (Note—This is the end of Lieutenant De Long's diary. De Long, Surgeon Ambler and Ah Sam, the cook, must have died soon after the last note was written.

GAMBLING AND MURDER.

Three Men Shot Dead by a New Mexican Gambler and a Fourth Mortally Wounded—The Gambler Lynched by the Citizens

DENVER, June 27.—The Tribune's dispatch from Raton, N. M., says that on Monday afternoon Deputy Sheriff Dolmann attempted to arrest a gambler named Gus Mentzel. Mentzel fired two shots at Dolmann, slightly wounding him, also Chas. Fox and Jacob Harris, who were standing near them. Shortly afterward Dolmann made a second attempt to arrest Mentzel at his gambling house. Mentzel again opened fire on the Deputy, which resulted in the death of Harry Houlton, Justice of the Peace, and Hugh Edelston, one of the proprietors of the Moulton Hotel, and S. H. Jackson, a saloon keeper. All three were instantly killed. H. Latimer and Deputy Sheriff Bergan were seriously wounded. Immediately after the killing Mentzel was seized by the enraged citizens and hanged to a sign over the Raton Bank.

[LATER.]

Deputy Sheriff Bergan is dying and the citizens are wild with excitement. It is thought a raid will be made upon the gamblers to-night.

SOUNDING BRASS.

The Monster Band Tournament at Lake Maranocook.

ONE THOUSAND MUSICIANS IN A GRAND CONCERT.

(Special Dispatch to the Press.)

WINTHROP, June 26.—A more beautiful day could not have been expected even at this favorable season than that vouchsafed for the mammoth band tournament at Lake Maranocook yesterday, the second which has been held there. The gathering was not quite so large as that on the 5th of July last, but the assemblage of yesterday was estimated by good judges to be at least 10,000.

The lake side of the grounds is nicely sheltered from the sun by a beautiful grove, and there the musical trials and festivities took place. The bands contesting for the prizes played upon a platform near the lake and the judges occupied quaint little elevated pulpit-like seats at some distance apart at the rear to form a tri-angle. By this method of course there was no opportunity for consultation or collusion, each judge scoring his own points.

Upon the westerly side of the railroad track was the clam-bake gotten up by Capt. Jenks of Casco Bay note, as well as the side-shows and inevitable catch-penny chances that attend large gatherings.

Those who like the water found plenty of opportunity for indulging in a sail upon the lake in one of the several little pleasure steamers and other craft.

Of the eighty-four bands represented, coming from all parts of the state, but seven contested for the cash prizes, which were $150 to first; $100 to second; $70 to third; $50 to fourth; $30 to fifth; $25 to sixth—in all $425.

The bands playing for the cash and honors of the tournament were:

West Waterville, J. Wesley Gilman leader.
North Berwick, Frank Neal leader.
Dover, H. Taylor leader.
Miller's, F. G. Payne leader.
Bridgton Cornet, E. M. Berry, leader.
New Vineyard, Frank Luce leader.
Glover's of Auburn, Geo. H. Glover leader.

The judges were gentlemen of experience and competency and as they belonged out of the state it is proper to assume that the decisions were impartial. They were Prof. J. B. Claus of Boston, of the New England Conservatory of Music; Prof. W. S. Ripley of Boston, known as a musician of note and a composer and publisher of band music; Prof. J. H. Rollinston, of Connecticut, also well known as a composer.

The prizes were awarded for excellence in the following points: Time, tune, tone, execution and expression. The highest point attainable was five, which denoted excellent; four, very good; three, good; two, fair, and one bad.

Drum Major Bean acted as master of ceremonies in mustering the musicians, and did his duty most acceptably.

Seven bands were entered for the cash prizes and but three played, viz: Glover's of Auburn; Miller's of Lewiston; and the North Berwick band. The prizes were awarded, first to Glover's; second to Miller's; and third to the North Berwick Band. Glover's organization won the first honors last year.

For the prize cornet which was an elegant instrument valued at $175, the following solo. ists contested: Mr. J. H. Taylor of Dover, Master Frankie Cash of Bridgton, Unknown of Stark, Mr. R. B. Hall of Richmond, Mr. Charles E. Lindall, of Portland. The judges were the same as above mentioned, and the points involved were time, tone, expression, execution and phrasing.

But three of the soloists played. Messrs. Hall, Lindall and Master Cash. Mr. Lindall, in a brilliant arrangement of Carnival of Venice captured the cornet by storm, and it was in good time duly presented to him by Professor Claus. Mr. Hill, who is a member of the Boston Cadet Band, played fairly and Master Cash, a lad of 14, demonstrated that he was a valuable Cash boy.

The tournament ended with the monster band concert, in which about one thousand musicians took part under the direction of Frank L. Collins. The following selections were given:

Hail Columbia.
Company D. Quickstep, by Prof. W. S. Ripley, of Roston.
Zingeri March, Arranged by Prof. J. B. Claus.
Blue from Camp March, by Mr. E. N. Catlin. America.

The bands harmonized well and played in good time and tone.

The bands entered to participate in the consolidated concert were as follows:

Buxton Cornet, Fred A. Berry, leader.
Cherryfield, Ed. C. Wakefield, leader.
West Waterville, J. Wesley Gilman, leader.
West Falmouth, Fred A. Merrill, leader.
Great Chebeague, I. W. Bryan, leader.
South Newburg, J. R. Rigby, leader.
Brownfield, F. G. Ham, leader.
Lovell, I. A. Farrington, leader.
Stow, Wesley Emerson, leader.
Levant Cornet, L. H. Waugh, leader.
North Berwick Cornet, Frank Neal, leader.
Miller's of Lewiston, J. H. Miller, leader.
Kezar Falls, Frank Shaw, leader.
South Waterford, Geo. S. Bennett, leader.
Webb's Mills, Jas. Taylor, leader.
Monroe, G. R. Gould, leader.
South Berwick.

Canaan, Fred Rolf, leader.

The Lewiston Convention.

The conference of Democrats, real and alleged, at Lewiston yesterday, was a tame affair. In the work the delegates were called to do, the nomination of Plaisted, they had little heart. Not even the assertion of Mr. Bradbury that Plaisted is a true Democrat satisfied them. They admire his Shifty Excellency's "smartness," but entertain a profound distrust of his sincerity. They are growing to know him as well as the Republicans do. However, there was no escape from nominating him, and the ungrateful task was reluctantly but decorously discharged.

The platform is a stump speech prepared by Mr. Bion Bradbury, and showing in every paragraph his acknowledged skill in the use of language. It is "a tale of little meaning, though the words are strong." It begins with denunciation of assessments of office-holders, which the Democracy has always practiced—practiced even as late as the days of the malodorous Garcelon administration — and with an approval of "civil service reform," which it never practiced. It goes on to declare for a "tariff for revenue only," quietly ignoring the fact that when the Democrats last controlled both houses of Congress they did nothing in the way of remodelling the tariff. It asks for the relief of our shipping interests—relief which the last Democratic Congress persistently neglected to grant. It declares in favor of treasury notes as against bank notes, but rejects Mr. Bradbury's proposition that only gold and silver should enjoy the legislative quality of being a legal tender for private debts. In fact, the platform is, for the most part, a description of work neglected while the Democracy was in power.

Having nominated a candidate for Governor and framed a platform strange to Democratic feet, the convention proceeded to nominate candidates for Congress, and got through that useless work as hastily as it could. Little interest was manifest. The delegates, cowering under the shadow of coming defeat, were indifferent as to the ticket, hastily accepted the suggestions of some of the leaders, and quickly adjourned. No confidence in success was felt, and little care for the campaign taken. They felt "beaten from the word go." The only enthusiasm evoked was at the appearance of Eben Pillsbury, of State Steal notoriety. His pals welcomed him effusively.

BURLINGTON HAWKEYE: The "spoils system" my boy? Well, it's a system by which you don't get any of the spoils. Stamp it out? "Why cert'nly;" jump on it with both feet. What can we see in such an iniquitous system for us? A "boss?" Why a "boss" is any man who gets more votes in convention than your own personal candidate. Dangerous, why of course it is. A carboy of nitro-glycerine is the morning bottle of the cradle alongside of him! We will name our own "boss" and then see who runs this machine. The "machine?" Well, it is that portion, or rather faction, yes, faction of your party that refuses to vote in caucus as you tell them to. Indeed it is; revolutionary, factious and corrupt beyond all measure. Certainly we must break it up; smash it to pieces, down with the "machine," and if these fellows aren't pure enough and patriotic enough to vote as we tell 'em, read them out of the party. Tell you what, my boy, there's nothing going like independent politics. When you get left in convention, always come out independent, and come out strong.

ONE blast furnace on the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad at one time, in the hauling of its raw material and manufactured articles, furnished one-fourteenth of all the tonnage of the road. On seven of the railroads of the country the proportion of transportation of raw material to blast furnaces and other mills is very much greater than this. In fact the very existence of some roads depends upon the coal and ore transported over them. Without this freight carriage the merchants, farmers and all others who now use them would be compelled to pay largely increased freight rates. This is not only of the roads which are almost entirely dependent on this kind of traffic, but it is also true of those on which ore and coal carriage is from 10 to 20 per cent of their business. If this is cut off as it must be by overturning the protective system, they will be compelled to fall back on the farmers with increased rates. Thus as to all these roads a blow at the tariff is a blow at the farmer.

THE Assistant Treasurer of the United States at Boston seems to regard the convenience of the people dealing with his office as a thing utterly unworthy his serene consideration. Checks payable at his office are sent back on frivolous pretences and it seems to be his chief care to devise new and unexpected objections. Of course it is necessary to conduct the business with formality for the protection of the Government and no good citizen objects to a reasonable amount of red tape. But at the Boston office formality degenerates into priggish fussiness, fruitful of annoyances. It is exceedingly vexatious to have little checks sent back for corrections not at all useful for the protection of the Treasury. This grievance is the more aggravating because, so far as we can learn, it exists in no other similar office in the country. If the Treasury Department cares to correct this abuse we will undertake to show where the investigation can begin and to furnish sufficient instances in point to more than justify all that we have said.

KENNEBEC Journal: Fusion papers are stripping off the temperance disguise in which they have been masquerading, and are beginning to apply their lash to the men whom they were covering with applause a short time since. In its telegraphic despatches of Saturday, the Bangor Commercial, Governor Plaisted's mouthpiece, elegantly heads the associated press report of the conference of leading prohibitionists in Portland Saturday:

THE NEAL DOW CRANKS.

How They Work a Little Racket in Favor of the Republican Party.

"These be harsh words, my masters," but they seem more natural to this Democratic organ—the open champion of a license law—than more refined epithets. Our Democratic exchanges are beginning to show their teeth.

BURLINGTON Hawkeye: Senator Slater of Oregon says he does not think the recent Republican victory there was brought about by Republican votes. Oh, no, to be sure; certainly not. A Republican victory, you know, never is brought about by Republican votes. It is always caused by Democratic votes. By there not being enough of them.

THE Atlanta Constitution wants the south to raise more food crops and less cotton. In 1881, the south paid the north about $200,000,000 for flour, meats, and the general provision list. It forgets that its cotton crop paid for these things; and as it did, what's the odds?

THE Argus (Dem.) of yesterday found occasion to quote somewhat at large from the Advertiser (Ind.) of the preceding day. We are glad to see that the Argus had the grace not to add "Rep." to the Advertiser.

EACH of the two factions of the warring Tennessee Democracy predicts that unless the other ceases quarreling the Republicans will carry the State.

A MEDICAL society in Chicago has expelled a member for the gross offense of publishing his card in a newspaper and paying for it.

ENGLAND frames her revenue laws upon the reports of commissions like our tariff commission.

One of a Million.

[Dr. Deschamps in Galignani.]

My debut as a smoker was like everybody's. My first pipe made me very ill, and it was only by degrees that I managed to become a third-rate smoker—that is, I disposed of eight or ten pipes a day without inconvenience. But whenever I exceeded that average I suffered from violent sick-headaches, ushered in by indistinctness of vision, and numbness of one side of the face, the tongue and one arm, most often on the left side. These preliminary symptoms lasted about ten minutes, after which the headach came on in full force. The most refractory organ, however, was my stomach. After having smoked too much I used to experience the symptom known as pyrosis or heartburn to a very trying extent, though as any alkaline water speedily caused these phenomena to vanish I did not care to give up my tobacco.

About a year ago, having smoked for some months more than usual, I suddenly found myself affected by a peculiar and terrific pain over the region of the heart; in short, I had a violent attack of angina pectoris. It put a stop to my smoking, as, though I have since tried once or twice, I have always found my cigar or pipe detestable, and, to sum up, am radically converted. I do not wish to discuss scientifically the nicotinic origin of my sufferings, but am sure that they all sprang from the same cause—excessive use of tobacco. Degeneration of the cardiac muscle is often caused by tobacco. So long as the rest of his organism remains in good working order the smoker only experiences intermittent palpitation, and the grave injury done the heart remains unperceived until some trifling cause brings into relief the irremediable disorders produced by the prolonged use of tobacco.

An Outrage on Irish Tenants.

[London Truth.]

We hear a great deal about agrarian outrages in Ireland by or on behalf of tenants, and very little of landlord outrages. I would, however urge those who wish really to understand the rights and the wrongs on both sides to weigh the conduct of Lord Cloncurry to his tenants, as disclosed by the debate upon the subject in the House of Commons last Friday. These tenants were rented forty per cent. above the poor law valuation: they lodged a year ago the amount of their rent, less twenty per cent., having by borrowing and scraping been able so far to meet their obligations. They were at once turned out of their holding, and their tenant right confiscated. They then made a desperate effort, and offered Lord Cloncurry his rents without any abatement, in order to bring themselves within the benefit of the approaching Land Act. This, however, was refused, and Lord Cloncurry proposed to them to sign new leases for sixty-six years, at the old scandalous standard. Having declined this, the Land League sent down wooden huts for them, as they were houseless. The myrmidons of Mr. Foster at once interfered, and forbade the erection of these huts; and the result is that 300 families are homeless and, if not relieved, will have to go to the work house. Lord Cloncurry only found one defender—Lord Edward Fitzmaurice—who observed, amid shouts of surprise, that Lord Cloncurry's character had been "practically cleared." Now, let me ask what would have been the verdict of English public opinion had an English landlord acted toward his tenants as Lord Cloncurry did toward his?

ENDOWMENT INSURANCE

—IN THE—

NORTHWESTERN

Mutual

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

Better than a Four per cent. Government Bond,

Which at a premium pays about 3½ per cent. interest.

Better than the Savings Bank, which gives no insurance, pays about 4 per cent. interest, from which you may withdraw your deposit at any time, or neglect to make it. It is easier to make money than to save it.

Better than Tontine Policies in other Companies as shown by comparison of results.

Results Accomplished.

THE NORTHWESTERN has paid over $3,300,000 matured endowments. Besides giving insurance these policies have returned the premiums with 4 to 5⅔ per cent. compound interest.

THE ASSETS OF THE NORTHWESTERN, (invested in the most productive and solid securities of the country) have earned the past ten years above paying all expenses and taxes, an average of 4.27 per cent interest.

THE SURPLUS OF THE COMPANY over a 4 per cent. reserve is $3,022,612.

SINCE 1875 THE NORTHWESTERN has done better by its policy-holders than any company in the country. It needs only to be known to be preferred. Its policy-holders increase their insurance in the Northwestern.

Stoddard at Malmaison.

On the 29th of May John L. Stoddard paid a visit to Malmaison, a few miles from Paris. This was the favorite home of Napoleon, when General and First Consul, and the place where, as he frequently declared, he spent the happiest hours of his life. Josephine retired to Malmaison after her divorce from the Emperor and died there. The day chosen by Mr. Stoddard for his visit was the anniversary of her death. Though Malmaison itself was quiet and almost deserted, he found many people gathered in the little church of Rueil, where Josephine is buried, and many floral offerings adorned her marble tomb. The fact that Mr. Stoddard had brought a photographer from America (Mr. Black) to illustrate the history of Josephine at Malmaison, awakened great interest, and every facility for photographing the tomb of the Empress was given. Mr. Stoddard was presented to a faithful attendant of the Bonaparte family, whom Eugenie had sent thither to lay a floral tribute on her grave.

Personal.

Marshal Bridges returned yesterday from his week's vacation, looking much refreshed.

Mr. N. G. Fessenden, the newsdealer, has returned from a three week's trip to Chicago.

David Paine, a former well-known resident of Portland, is in town.

THE TORNADO.

Further News of Its Effects.

Yesterday's PRESS gave an account of the effects of Monday's tornado, as far as ascertained.

The schooner Minstrel, Capt. Colby, reports that while off Half Way Rock the tornado burst upon them, and things were pretty well mixed for a short time. The Minstrel lost her jib, and says there were other vessels in her neighborhood that lost sails, while one was deprived of its mainmast head. No serious damage was inflicted.

Mrs. Ingalls, new High street, while watching some trees she feared would be blown down stood very near a window of her house. The blind slammed to with such violence that it broke several large panes of glass, and the flying glass cut her face very badly.

The shed on the wharf at Peak's Island was taken up bodily and carried back on to the island quite a distace.

A barn at Cape Elizabeth was moved several feet.

Large planks were carried across the dump and smashed the windows in the Portland & Rochester freight house.

Near Lake Maranocook a large tree fell across the wires of the Western Union Telegraph Company, breaking them all. A special engine, with line men, was sent out from here at 8 o'clock, and the line was repaired at midnight.

The damage at Falmouth Foreside, as far as heard from, consisted in the moving of the barn of Mr. Skillings several rods, and the destruction of several apple trees. Mr. Horace Sargent was driving across Martin's Point bridge, and his carriage had a narrow escape from destruction.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fletcher were riding into town, and at the Knightville end of Portland bridge, the tornado struck the carriage with great force. The horse had to be held, for he was terribly frightened, and Mr. Fletcher was badly cut in the face by the flying pebbles.

At Old Orchard, a child in a cradle, on a hotel piazza, was taken up, cradle and all, and carried some distance, but escaped injury.

A section of the railing was blown off Tukey's bridge, and a woman in that vicinity lost her entire week's washing, and has not yet recovered it.

Schooner Weeks, lying at Government wharf, at Hog Island, parted her moorings and stove her small boat.

A small barn, with a portion of the large barn to which it was attached, was taken by the wind quite a distance in Pownal, and a cow so badly injured it was feared she would have to be killed. The barn and cow belonged to George Chadbourne.

MUSIC AND THE DRAMA.

FANNY MARSH.

The Cleveland Leader of the 20th inst says: "Miss Fanny Marsh last evening made her first appearance in public for several years in the part of Laura Courtland in "Under the Gaslight," displaying talent that lack of practice seems to have left undiminished. She was cordially greeted and presented with several costly floral offerings. Her scene before the railroad train was worked up to a thrilling climax and a recall loudly demanded."

The delightful excursion from Portland to Gardiner and the beautiful sail down the Kennebec river to Bath should attract all lovers of music and nature. Richmond.

MONDAY, June 26.

A violent wind, accompanied by thunder, lightning and rain, struck this place between 5 and 6 o'clock this afternoon, causing much confusion while it lasted. Blinding clouds of dust were whirled through the streets and trees twisted off and blown over. Considerable havoc was made with the telegraph wires. Russell's ice houses on Stearn's Point, Dresden, were unroofed and their ends blown in. A schooner loading ice at the Orient Ice Co.'s wharf was blown from her moorings. Two barns are reported blown down, and other damage done. Such a gale has not visited this place before for a number of years.

The house, ell and barn owned and occupied by G. D. Jaques, and situated about two miles from this village, on the county road, were totally destroyed by fire Saturday night. The fire was discovered about 11.15 p. m., by a man passing by, who aroused the inmates of the house. Nearly all the furniture was destroyed, together with $63 in money that was placed under a carpet. Loss $2,300; insured for $1,500 on buildings and furniture. The fire originated about the chimney.

Albert J. Stevens, a brakeman on the M. C. R. R., while dusting his cars, Friday night found a purse containing fifty $20 and $10 bills amounting to about $200. He found by its contents it belonged to Col. Sprague of Auburn. Mr. Stevens delivered it to Mr Sprague.

LOVE'S YOUNG DREAM.

How a Youth of Seventy-Two Trifled with the Affections of a Damsel of Sixty-Eight.

(Augusta Journal.)

In the Superior Court for Kennebec county on Monday, the breach of promise case of Elizabeth Perkins against Curtis Higgins came to trial. Both parties reside in Belgrade. The plaintiff is a blushing widow of sixty-eight, with children forty years old, while the defendant's hair is silvered by the frosts of seventy-two winters, and his youngest son is a sturdy young man of twenty-four. Mrs. Perkins claimed that her feeling were lacerated to the extent of $1,000 by the faithlessness of the gay widower. In September, 1881, the tender passions was kindled in the susceptible breast of Mr. Higgins, and he approached the fair Elizabeth with proposals of matrimony, it is claimed. At first she rejected his suit, but the swain was not easily discouraged, and continued his attentions until she finally consented to name the blissful day. All went smoothly for a while with the youthful lovers and their engagement was announced in the grocery stores and discussed over the tea-tables in the goodly town of Belgrade. The time for the nuptials approached, and in anticipation of a serenade, Mr. Higgins purchased a peck of peanuts and instructed his intended to lay in a supply of Porter apples with which to "treat" the young men who should make the air of night vocal with their roundelay. But alas for man's inconstancy? Our pencil blushes as we write it. Elizabeth began to notice a growing coolness in her lover's attentions. His affections gradually became estranged from her and centered upon another tender widow named Maria Brown, and Mrs. Perkins began to realize the force of the poet's remark:

"Men are deceivers eevr;
One foot in sea, and one on shore;
To one thing constant never."

And so in part compensation for this havoc with her affections, she brought suit against the trifler. Mr. Higgins claimed in rebuttal that the children of his intended bride objected to the match; that he didn't want to marry into a family quarrel; and that lately having come into possession of some ten or eleven hundred dollars pension money, Elizabeth was animated not so much by affection for him as by mercenary motives. Able counsel argued the case on both sides, and the jury after due deliberation brought in a verdict of $25 damages for plaintiff.

OPENING OF THE CAMPAIGN.

Formation of a Robie Club at Springfield

[Bangor Whig.]

Pursuant to a call the Republicans of Springfield and vicinity met Saturday evening for the purpose of forming a Robie Club. The meeting was called to order by L. W. Drake, Esq., and the following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, We the undersigned do believe in the purity of the ballot and an honest count of the same, in an unobstructed Executive and an independent Judiciary.

Whereas, We do believe it to be for the best interest of the people that the Republican party be reinstated to power in the State of Maine.

Whereas, We do believe that this can be better accomplished and the above principles be better advanced by the co-operation of all citizens believing as is herein set forth, therefore

Resolved, That we do form ourselves into an organization which shall be known as the Robie Club of Springfield, with the following officers, to wit: President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and Executive Committee, with such other officers as the club shall deem expedient.

Resolved, That we pledge our hearty and undivided support to the platform adopted and the candidates nominated at the Republican State Convention held at Portland June 13, 1882, and that we also pledge ourselves to use all honorable means within our power to secure the election of candidates nominated at said convention.

The resolutions were adopted with great enthusiasm, and the following officers were elected: President, E. C. Ryder, Esq.; Vice Presidents, Springfield, E. A. Reed; Lee, E. A. The Tornado in Kittery.

[Portsmouth Chronicle.]

The thunder shower which passed over this city about five o'clock Sunday morning, in Kittery developed itself into a tornado, which if less destructive than those that have recently ravaged the west, was quite as severe as our neighbors across the river desire to experience.

It first made its appearance on the farm of Mr. Samuel Moulton, situated on the Kittery Point road, uprooting several large trees, leveling fences and making large gaps in the stone walls; it next struck the place of Mr. Wm. Parker, twisting off trees as large as a man's body, passing into the premises of Wm. H. Wilson, Wm. N. Wilson and Joel Norton, all of whom had fences and trees more or less injured. It next struck the barn of Mr. Newell Colby, and the doors being open it lifted the roof and demolished the building containing a horse, cow, pigs, carriages and farming tools, all which were burned in the ruins, the animals being rescued some time after, quite badly hurt; the carriages and tools were completely ruined, Mr. Colby estimating his total loss at about $500. On the premises of Mr. Mugridge, across the road from Mr. Colby's, a number of young apple trees were torn up.

During the shower lightning struck a large oak tree at the Lower Foreside, shattering it to pieces; it also struck the telephone line leading to York, the poles for a mile or more being splintered. A large elm opposite the smithy of Stephen B. Butterfield at Spruce Creek, was completely demolished by lightning, and trees were struck in several localities. The house of a Mr. White at Kittery Point was struck and considerably shaken up, plastering torn off and dishes broken; and a dress hanging in a closet was turned inside out without being injured. Mr. White was thrown out of bed and his face scorched, and his daughter was also slightly burned, but none of the woodwork or clothing showed marks of fire.

Bluehill.

MONDAY, June 26, 1882.

Henry B. Darling, a merchant at Bluehill, Me., has failed, and made an assignment of his property to his creditors. It is thought his debts amount to $12,000, mostly to outside parties, though a few Bluehill men lose. He was second selectman, and the failure came like a thunder clap on his town, where he is universally liked.

YORK COUNTY.

Monday was "cure-all day" in Maine, and thousands of people bathed in the ocean with the firm belief that they will be cured of all humors and all sorts of diseases. It is a superstitution or belief which has been handed down by the ancestors of the present generation, and it is believed and followed in many parts of Maine. Hundreds of people drove to Wells beach from the inland towns Monday and tried the efficacy of a sea bath. If it does not cure diseases the bath can certainly not have caused any harm to any of the people who have been seen along shore at that point.

PLANT FOOD.

This compound has been thoroughly analyzed by a competent Professor of Chemistry, who pronounces it good for all we claim for it. No one need fear to apply it to the most tender plant. Use a small quantity and Increase as the Plant Matures.

This compostism gives the plants a luxurious growth and a dark rich green color, which no other food gives them; it also gives the flower of the plants a brighter, richer and more beautiful color. It has no equal for Plants in the house or garden, and what is of the most importance to the Ladies, is its easy application, and it has positively no offensive odor. Back Ache
POSITIVELY CURED BY Benson's Capcine Porous Plasters.

Reasons Why they are Preferred to All Other Porous Plasters or External Remedies:

First.
Because they possess all the merit of the strengthening porous plaster, and contain in addition thereto the newly discovered powerful and active vegetable combination which acts with increased rubefacient, stimulating, sedative and counter irritant effects.

Second.
Because they are a genuine pharmaceutical preparation, and so recognized by the profession.

Third.
Because they are the only plasters that relieve pain at once.

Fourth.
Because they will positively cure diseases which other remedies will not even relieve.

Fifth.
Because over 5000 physicians and druggists have voluntarily testified that they are superior to all other plasters or medicines for external use.

Sixth.
Because the manufacturers have received the only medals ever given for porous plasters.

Wit and Wisdom.

Elahdieuh Doanmoe and Laura Foneadleina were married at Carlisle, Pennsylvania, the other day. A few more events like this would give the marital institution a very hard name. They were both Kiowas at school there.—New Haven Register.

A Significant Fact.

The cheapest medicine in use is THOMAS' ECLECTRIC OIL, because so very little of it is required to effect a cure. For croup, diphtheria, and diseases of the lungs and throat, whether used for bathing the chest or throat for taking internally or inhaling, it is a matchless compound.

The fly is a happy thing, and goes about trying to tickle everybody.

The unhappy wife who suffers from the petulance, and ill humor of a nervous husband, should name the real cause in her complaint to the court, or remove that nervousness by presenting the defendant with Dr. Benson's Celery and Chamomile Pills.

The man who tries to belittle others must be little himself.

"Wheat Bitters" never disturb the stomach, but promote digestion and nourishment.

People who live in Ireland, where no one is expected to pay rent any more, are trying as hard as ever to come to America, where a man who don't pay his rent gets kicked out of the house and the furniture sold for the benefit of the landlord. There is no accounting for tastes.—Philadelphia News.

The "style" for July is ready for delivery at 12 Elm St.

An only child is a single heir occurrence.

The rich phosphates, combined with the best vegetable bitters, make in Wheat Bitters the greatest blood, brain and nerve food in existence.

In the steam car the other day was a bright little 4 year old lady. An elderly gentleman a few seats back every time the little one turned around would shake his finger, or duck his head, or "cluck," or do some one of the score of things that are supposed to be especially pleasing to babies. The little girl answered these kindly attentions with a vacant stare, until, apparently surfeited and grown tired of them, she exclaimed in a voice loud enough to be heard half through the car, "Mamma, I really believe that old fool is trying to make love to me." The old gentleman stopped at once.—Boston Transcript.

Those who prepare Hops and Malt Bitters make no secret of its ingredients, but publish them on every bottle. Medical authorities say that these remedies are all that is claimed for them for the cure of Dyspepsia, Debility, Indigestion, Constipation, etc.

Joe Emmet has just paid $2,500 for a dog. This looks as if Mr. Emmet were still drinking.—Courier-Journal.

"Why is Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable compound like the Mississipbi river in a spring freshet? Because the immense volume of this healing river moves with such momentum that it sweeps away all obstacles and is literally flooding the country.

A woman may be able to discount a man on the number of smiles on her string, but he can carry away the palm on the strength of his.—N. Y. Com. Adv.

Dyspepsia, heart-burn, nausea, indigestion, etc., are always relieved by Brown's Iron Bitters.

The report of that first battle in Egypt turns out to be a mistake. The disturbance was merely the fight of an English tourist against about 2,000 donkey boys who wanted backsheesh.—Boston Post.

Write and find out why so many cultivated women use Healy's Vegetable Tonic Pills and Cordial. See advt. on this page.

CEPHALINE is a positive cure for Dyspepsia and Chronic Indigestion.

A patent medicine advertisement begins by asking: "How do you account for your having an extremely tired feeling?" Well, sir, we've laid it largely to reading a joke in a St. Louis paper.—Boston Post.

Horsford's Acid Phosphate

is useful in dyspepsia. It gives the stomach tone, and imparts vigor to the whole system.

Thank gracious, Guiteau is not a Georgian, but he will soon be in the hemp higher state, so to speak. We charge nothing extra for these little suggestions, unless we are called upon for explanations.—Atlanta Constitution.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE of the Kidneys, Diabetes and other diseases of the Kidneys and Liver, which you are being so frightened about, Hop Bitters is the only thing that will surely and permanently prevent and cure. All other pretended cures only relieve for a time and then make you many times worse.

Justin D. Fulton has made up his mind to annihilate tobacco, and to begin with advises young ladies to have nothing to do with young men who use it.
